At some future day, and that not very distant, the St. Louis Republican thinks the North will make the sacrifice proposed in Mr. Sumner's resolution. Nationality, patriotism, unity and fraternity will prompt it to give up those symbols of its triumph which, to the defeated South, are the mementoes of its humiliation. It will involve no surrender of the substance and fruits of its triumph; these have become parts of the constitution, and, what is more, part of an unchangeable history. It will he simply a giving up of its battle trophies. To Messrs, LITTLEFIELD & HAVEs, Proprietor of Constitutional Catarrh Remedy, Manchester

I reside at Manchester, N. H., and previously resided at Henniker, and am a native of Wears, this State. I have had Catarrh 25 years, ever since I was it years old; had it bad all the time. It run all that period, and nights it would fill up and drop down in my throat, easing a feeling of choking, so that I would spring up in bed to save myself from strangulation. It affected my head so that I leit confused, and was troubled with severe head-ache at intervals for a week at a time. I also had pains in the shoulders, back and kidneys, from which I suffered immensely. So had were they, that a year ago last summer I was obliged to lie in bed, most of the time for three months. I have tried all kinds of sunf and Catarrh remedies with no particular benefit, and consulted physicians. I began to take the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy last Angust. I began to grow better before finishing the first bottle. My catarrh is causel; my health is rostored. I have no pains, achee or cough. My whole system is made over new. I know it is this medicine that has rescued me from intense suffering and almost the grave. I am now able to do the hardes work and bear the greatest exposure, and feel that I cannot say too much in favor of the Constitutional Catarrh Hemedy.

REMEDY. While most discuss are not obscure in their development, and short in their duration, that of the lungs is insidious, deceifful, and often uncertain in its real nature, till it has reached an advanced and m re real nature, this is has reached an advanced and hopeless stage.

1. Tet, with this peculiarity in its nature, where it is seasonably and properly attended to, its progress may be effectually arrested in the great majority of cases. This fact occurs frequently within general observation and experience.

1. To arrest the existing irritation of the air passages and the lungs, speedily and effectually, the ceat and cause of cough, is an important step gained toward relief and cure in the first stages of the discusse. But while the remedy confers this benefit, it must possess another principle equally indispensable to complete the cure. It must at the same time exert and impart nourishing, healing, and strength ening influence throughout the whole system.

E.F. Lung disease poisons the circulation, weakers the fluids of the entire organism, and rapidly undermines the constitution. It thus requires a restorative of extraordinary efficacy to reach and relieve the advanced stages of consumption.

MASTA'S INDIAN PULMONIC BALSAM possesses this rare combination. Prepared entirely from vegetable substances, with their balannic medicinal properties, it can be taken at any time and under all circumstances with perfect safety.

[7] While it promptly and effectually arrests irritation of the air-passages and the lungs, and rejudy relieves cough, it renders them further assistance by promotions a free discharge of their accumulated by promoting a free discharge of their accumulated nucus, and at the same time imparts strength and vigor to the whole system. Sold by all Drugrists and Apothecaries throughout the New England States. For sale in Rock Island by JOHN BENGSTON, E. BRUENERT, SMITH & BONNEY.
